HAMPSHIRE IS DIRECTED TO FACE CHARGES

Must Appear In Court And Answer To The Charge Of Contempt

MOTION OVERRULED BY JUDGE BLAIR

Petterson vs. Home Building Company Case Heard In Court Wednesday

According to an opinion handed down by Judge Blair in the Knox county common pleas court late Wednesday afternoon, a warrant is to be issued for the arrest of Ross M. Hampshire, and the defendant is to be brought to this city to answer to a charge of contempt of court.
Proceedings against Hampshire, charging contempt, were instituted in court some weeks ago. On last Saturday Judge Blair heard a motion of Hampshire's attorney asking the court to dismiss the information charging contempt. Judge Blair took the matter under advisement, and late Wednesday afternoon handed down a written opinion in which he stated that the motion was not well taken and accordingly was dismissed. Judge Blair ordered a warrant issued for the arrest of Hampshire and that he be brought into court to answer to the charge of contempt.
Judge Blair instructed Clerk of Courts Leiter to notify Hampshire's attorney that the motion had been overruled and that if Hampshire appears in court voluntarily, no warrant will be issued for his arrest.
Relatives of Hampshire's former wife allege that the defendant has taken one of his children to Mingo Junction against the court's order, and that he is in contempt.

Case Is Heard
The case of Hugo Peterson vs. The Mt. Vernon Home Building Co. was presented before Judge Blair in the Knox county common pleas court on Wednesday. The action involves the deed to a house. The plaintiff contends that in his original deed he was given the wrong property by the defendant and that after the deed had been corrected it is alleged that the plaintiff refused to take the property. The two cases were consolidated into one and Judge Blair, after hearing the evidence announced that he would take the matter under consideration and announce a written opinion at a later date.

Marriage License
Callen C. Stringfellow, farmer, and Rosa A. Hauger, both of Union township. Rev. Hugh Wayt.
